LETTER FROM ARTISTIC DIRECTORS

To Our Past, Present and Future Subscribers:

What an exciting year this promises to be! We are thrilled to announce that we will be the resident company of the Greenwin Theatre at the Toronto Centre for the Arts.

This new studio space, built specifically for the comfort and theatrical experience of our audience, will be constructed on the stage of the Main Stage Theatre. We know you'll love this new playing space and once again respond with sold out houses!

We are passionate about Jewish culture, legacy and heritage and our passion drives us to create dynamic theatre. We relish the opportunities we have to tell our stories, stories that resonate with you.

This year is no exception, with 4 great plays in our subscription series, an extraordinary add-on for the whole family – direct from New York City – and a fundraiser celebrating one of the 21st Century's most prolific and commercial Broadway composers.

We hope you will join us for a season of thought-provoking and engaging plays and musicals that embrace and celebrate our identity and vision.

We are dedicated above all to a pursuit of artistic excellence. We look forward to having you join us as we embark on this exciting journey together. See you in our new theatre!

DAVID EISNER and AVERY SALTZMAN | Co-Artistic Directors

Inspired by the life of Bella Chagall, the writer, actress, scholar and revolutionary, who was also the great love and creative muse for her famous husband Marc, this show is an intricate poetic look at the nature of love and creativity told through words and song, against the backdrop of Marc Chagall's colourful paintings.

“SHE WROTE AS SHE LIVED, AS SHE LOVED, AS SHE GREETED HER FRIENDS. HER WORDS AND PHRASES
WERE A WASH OF COLOUR OVER THE CANVAS”

—Marc Chagall

DIRECTED BY PHILIP AKIN

This gripping, Pulitzer Prize winning drama takes place in the Deep South and begins in the year 1948, just prior to the civil rights movement. Daisy Werthan, a rich, sharp tongued Jewish widow is forced by her son to hire a soft-spoken black chauffeur after she crashes the family vehicle. A warm-hearted, humorous and affecting study of the unlikely relationship between the two and how, over the course of twenty-five years, they slowly build a relationship that transcends their differences.

Fabrik is based on the harrowing true story of Moritz Rabinowitz who fled to Norway as a child during the Jewish exodus from pogrom-plagued Poland. We meet this quirky character at the end of World War I. A husband and father who has risen from poverty, he becomes one of Norway's leading men's clothing manufacturers and an outspoken and courageous denouncer of the rising tide of anti-Semitism. This play is magical, transporting audiences with its exquisite puppetry and music. Both delightful and haunting - truly an amazing theatrical experience.

Contains imagery and subject matter that is not suitable for children under 12.
